Applicants who have placed their names on the current list to test by submitting their application, but are unable to attend, should contact Human Resources by email so their names can be removed.

The City of Punta Gorda employs three tools in determining the qualifications of each Police Officer candidate:

- Written Examination--ONLINE
 1. The written examination will be administered virtually. Applicants will be given their login credentials for the online exam on May 31, 2022, and can complete the exam any time between June 1, 2022, and June 9, 2021 at 4:00PM.
 2. The written examination is comprised of three sections: Grammar, Reading Comprehension and Mathematics.
 3. Applicants must pass the Grammar and Reading Comprehension sections with a minimum score of 70% on each section.
 4. Applicants must have a minimum composite (average) score for all three sections of the written examination of 60%.
 5. Applicants who wish to receive a Study Guide for the written components of the testing process must submit a complete application packet electronically and email their request for the study guide to the following email address; EmployeeDevelopment@pgorda.us

6. Applicants must be sure to include their mailing address.

- Oral Board Examinations—VIRTUAL

1. Oral board examinations will be scheduled to be conducted virtually via Zoom on June 20, 2022, and June 21, 2022, for those applicants who pass the written examination.

Applicants who successfully complete this pre-hire testing process will be placed in the Police Officer Eligibility List and are not automatically in position of employment. They may be considered for a Police Officer position as such positions become available. Eligibility for consideration of employment will last for one year from the date of the written exam or until the eligibility list is depleted.
