It's a Boy

MaryBeth and Bobby Legg welcome their newest grandchild Timothy James, born Sat Mar 23, 7lbs 7oz, 21 inches.

Pick Me!

Hi - I'm Lugnut. I am a big, sweet, wiggly guy who loves attention and tushy scratches. I have distinctive yin/yang markings on my head - I hope this will bring me good luck, like a new home where I can live my fullest life. Could we complete each other's lives? Come meet me to find out.

I like to learn new things and am gentle when taking treats. I keep my kennel super clean, even overnight. In the mornings, I can be a bit strong on the leash until I take care of my business. Then I am a much better walker because I can concentrate on being outside and playing with the humans. When you gotta go, you gotta go! I'm the only lug nut you need to keep the wheels on on our relationship, so I am looking to be the only pet. Let's hook up so I can roll on outta here. Learn more at <https://www.awlshelter.org/>.
