Welcome

Urban Design is proud to introduce the City of Punta Gorda's new Chief Building Official, Ronald Cohowcz.

Ron currently resides in Cape Coral, Florida, and is coming to the City of Punta Gorda with over 28 years in the building construction industry. He was most recently employed by Jacobs, a company providing engineering, technical, professional, and construction services for a broad range of clients. While working at Jacobs, Ron has worked in Bonita Springs and the Town of Fort Myers Beach Building Departments serving as not only plans reviewer and building inspector but also as the Deputy Building Official.

We are excited to have Ron join the City of Punta Gorda family.
